My deepest condolences to the Sosa and Chavero Family. My fond memories of Thelma was us going horseback riding on Sundays and watching her barrel race on rodeo nights. Thelma always had a smile, there was never a dull moment when we all hung out at their ranch parties. May God Bless you always. Your friend Lucinda

I live in Michigan and when my oldest daughter moved to Texas, she was lucky enough to have Thelma and Frank as her neighbors... I didn't have to worry about my daughter as I knew she had a true Angel living next door to her. God bless your family.
