I became friends with Maria at the senior center. She loved all, never judged, and laughed full heartedly. To be around her, was being around family, who prayed, and she was always looking out for others. She loved pool and let other's shine there lite, and lucky, lucky at winning any game she played. She lived on this earth with so much to giving and sharing, and she will still be loving, and watching all over all from above. May her body rest in peace as the essence of her heart. Spirit, and Soul will Honor, Adore, Praise, Bless, and Glorify and Serve Our Lord Jesus Christ in her heavenly home.
